CAFA's Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Requirements

The purpose of a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) program at CAFA is to provide a quality certification designed to sustain and enhance the skills of members. CAFA members are encouraged to participate in regular chapter meetings for education and networking and to expand their comprehension of the multi- disciplinary nature of advice required by farm families and businesses. Participation in continuing education activities allows farm advisors to stay current and competitive in a rapidly changing agricultural industry. It promotes the development of knowledgeable, professional and competent advisors and enhances consumer protection and quality service.

Members are required to earn a minimum of 20 CPD credits every two calendar years, 12 of which MUST come from attending chapter meetings or a provincial conference.

Returning members: Continuing Professional Development (CPD) is mandatory for all CAFA members to maintain certification as a Certified Agricultural Farm Advisor.

New Members: First year of CAFA Membership is probationary. By second year, any new member having earned 20 CPD credits may apply for certification. Attendance at at least one provincial conference is required in the first two years.

- ☐ 3 credits for each chapter meeting attended when on the chapter executive.
- ☐ 2 credits for each chapter meeting and / or AGM attended.
- ☐ 2 credits to present at or arrange a speaker for a chapter meeting (when not on the chapter executive committee).
- ☐ 1/2 credit per hour of attendance at a non-CAFA agricultural workshop, seminar or conference to accumulative maximum of 8 credits.
- ☐ Negotiated credits for completion of an agriculture or advisory-related university or college credit
- ☐ 1 credit per hour of attendance at a CAFA conference.
